

The second book we read in January was 'The Lion Tamer who Lost' by Louise Beech which was published in 2018. We all enjoyed this beautiful love story between Ben and Andrew. The book explores LGBTQ themes as well as family secrets, resilience and hope. The narrative switches between Zimbabwe and England as well as alternating between past and present. It is a gripping page turner and well worth a read.