

Out of the window

I was looking out of the window when
I spied an enormous purple hen
Arm in arm with a spotted dog
Followed closely by a great fat frog
It really did make me stare
To see a pair of boxing hare
But what was strangest of all
Was a giraffe twenty feet tall
It made me laugh to see the kangaroo leap
And hear the baaing of a shaggy black sheep
A loud eeyore from a noisy donkey
The antics of a mischievous monkey
But what really blew my mind
Was when I saw a bear behind
Then I was roused from my slumber
By an ear piercing crash of thunder
By Pat Done
